Fucoidan (pronounced "few koy done") is a sulfated polysaccharide and has long been recognized as a key to healthy long lives.

Fucoidan has been used for centuries as a medicine or dietary element in Japan, South America, and Europe.

Fucoidan is found in over 8,000 species of sea plants.

Our Fucoidan comes from plants harvested from the extreme northern and southern hemispheres where the ocean is the coldest and purest in the world.

Fucoidan acts as the immune system for sea plants. When consumed daily, it acts the same for our immune systems.

Fucoidan has over 1000 independent research scientific 3rd party studies found at www.pubmed.gov.

Fucoidan promotes stem cell stimulation/growth.
